KEMIRA PERSONNEL AND REMUNERATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

PURPOSE

Kemira Oyj's Board of Directors has decided to appoint the Personnel and Remuneration Committee to assist the Board by preparing matters related to the remuneration and appointment of the CEO and the other executives as well as the remuneration principles observed by the company.

This charter lays out the authority, composition and responsibilities of the Personnel and Remuneration Committee.

AUTHORITY

The Personnel and Remuneration Committee has authority to take decisions regarding any matters within its scope of responsibility. It is empowered to:

- Meet with members of Kemira management, persons responsible for remuneration matters, internal and external auditors, or outside counsel, as necessary.
- Retain independent advisors, or others to advise the Committee in carrying out its duties.
- Seek any information it requires from employees - all of whom are entitled to cooperate with the Committee's requests - or external parties.

When carrying out its duties, the Committee shall act independently with relation to the operative management of the company. When using an external advisor to assist in carrying out its duties, the Committee shall ensure that the advisor is not also advisor to the operative management of the company in a manner that can result in a conflict of interest.

COMPOSITION AND MEETINGS

The Personnel and Remuneration Committee consists of not less than three non-executive Board members and majority of the members shall be independent of the Company. The Committee shall have its meetings upon need and in any case at least two times a year: The Chair shall convene the meetings upon his/her consideration or when instructed by the Board. The meetings can be held by phone or electronically.

The members present at the meeting shall constitute a quorum if at least three of the members are present at the meeting.

Meeting agendas are to be prepared and provided to the members at least four days before the meeting, along with appropriate briefing materials. The Group General Counsel shall act as the secretary to the Committee and shall prepare the minutes. The minutes of the meetings shall be reviewed at the next Committee meeting and shall be signed by the Chair of the Committee and the secretary and shall be properly filed in the archive. The Chair shall report on each committee meeting to the Board.

Participants in the Committee's meetings shall be the CEO and the EVP, People & Culture and other persons as invited by the Chair and the Group General Counsel as the secretary. Such participants shall not participate in any deliberations concerning their own salary, pension and other employment terms.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The Committee will carry out the following responsibilities:
